

I am in favor of the NCVEC petition. I believe that the Morse Code testing is holding back Technicians from operating below 30MHz. This would be great in emergencies, have more operators on those bands in case of emergency traffic is needed.